ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOMS

ROYAL ARCANUM. Supreme Regent L. R. Geisenberger gives the following stirring call to Reyal Arcanum members in the Jan-uary issue of the Bulletin:

1920 begins a happy new year for the Royal Arcanum, and for all its members. members.

The new year finds the order well begin on a new chapter of growth and activity. The record for December surpasses any month in the recent history of the order; 1,340 have been added to its rolls, so that despite deaths and all other membership losses of every sort there has been a net membership gain of 705. This record, immediately following a similar net main record for the month of November, marks the definits turn of the tide. For many months the workers of the order have struggled to show the smallest possible net coss. From now on it is the tenfold better task of intreasing our net gains.

The new year also finds the order mith the largest cash balances in its antire history. In 1905, when the order had 315,000, its cash assets were less than $3,000,000. In 1920, with less than half as many members, we have more than twice as much money. Financially, the 15 years show a gain of over 500 per cent. The order begins the new decade with an emergency fund of $6,400,381.14 and a balance of better than $635,000 in the widows and orphens benefit fund. Its assets over
